| It is furtherordered |   |

This order will remain in effect until

- 1. If you wish to apply for permission-
  - (a) to make an application in these proceedings; OR
  - (b) to make an application to amend or discharge this order, you must first serve notice of your application on the other party. The notice must set out the nature and grounds of the application and provide the other party with at least 7 days within which to respond. You must then apply for permission of the judge identified in the order. The application for permission must be made in writing and must include the other party's written response, if any, to the notice served. The application will be determined without a hearing.

- 2. If you repeatedly make applications for permission under 1 above which are totally without merit, the court may direct that if you make any further application for permission which is totally without merit, the decision to dismiss the application will be final and there will be no right of appeal, unless the judge who refused permission grants permission to appeal.
- 3. Any application for permission to appeal a refusal of an application under 1 above must be made in writing and will be determined without a hearing.
