

General civil restraint order

Name of court
Claim No.
Name of Claimant
Name of Defendant
Date of issue

Enter name and address of person against whom the order is made

SECTION 1

Date of order

Name of Judge

Name of person against whom order is made

The judge has considered an application by the  Claimant OR The judge has considered  on the court's own initiative
 Defendant

Upon hearing

Upon reading

And has found that, the above named person persists in issuing claims or making applications which are totally without merit, in circumstances where an extended civil restraint order would not be sufficient or appropriate.

SECTION 2

The Order

It is ordered that you be restrained from issuing any claim or making any application in

- Any Court
- The High Court or any county court
- County Court

without first obtaining the permission of

Name of Judge

OR

If unavailable

It is further ordered

This order will remain in effect until

You must obey the directions contained in this order. If you do not you will be guilty of contempt of court and you may be sent to prison.

Note

If you wish to make an application to amend or discharge of the order, you must first serve notice of your application on the other party. The notice must set out the nature and grounds of the application and provide the other party with at least 7 days within which to respond. You must then apply for permission of the judge identified in the order. The application for permission must be made in writing, must include the other parties written response, if any, to the notice served. The application will be determined without a hearing.

You may not make an application for permission without first serving notice of the application on the other party. The notice must set out the nature and grounds of the application, and provide the other party with at least 7 days within which to respond.

If you apply for permission to amend or discharge the order and permission is refused, any application for permission to appeal must be made in writing, and will be determined without a hearing.

You may apply for permission to appeal the order and if permission is granted may appeal the order. You should ask the court for the leaflet EX340 - I want to appeal.

SECTION 3

Costs

There is no order for costs

It is ordered that you pay costs. The sum you must pay is

You must

Pay on or before

and send payment to  Claimant  Defendant

Note

If this order was made in your absence, you may make an application to set aside, vary or stay the order. An application must be made within the period specified in the order or, where no period is specified, not more than 7 days after service of this order on you.

If you attempt to issue a claim or make an application in a court identified in this order without first obtaining permission of the judge named in the order above, your application will automatically be dismissed without the judge having to make any further order and without the need for the other party to respond to it.

If you do not understand anything in this order you should go to a Solicitor, Legal Advice Centre or a Citizens' Advice Bureau.