1 A serious further offence (SFO) is defined in Probation Circular 41 of 2006; available via the Home Office website. Essentially it includes any homicide or attempted homicide, rape or attempted rape and any other serious violent or sexual offence with a maximum penalty of 14 years' imprisonment or more. NB1 These data relate only to those offenders who are charged with an SFO whilst managed at level 2 or 3 of MAPPA.

NB2 In some of these cases, the offender may have been acquitted, or the charge may have been dropped to one not qualifying as an SFO at some point subsequent to the return notifying the SFO was made to the Ministry of Justice/Home Office
