

PRACTICE DIRECTION

LANDLORD AND TENANT CLAIMS AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS ABOUT LAND

This Practice Direction supplements Part 56

SECTION I – LANDLORD AND TENANT CLAIMS

- 1.1 In this section of this practice direction –
- (1) ‘the 1927 Act’ means the Landlord and Tenant Act 1927;
 - (2) ‘the 1954 Act’ means the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954;
 - (3) ‘the 1985 Act’ means the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985; and
 - (4) ‘the 1987 Act’ means the Landlord and Tenant Act 1987.

56.2 – STARTING THE CLAIM

- 2.1 Subject to paragraph 2.1A, the claimant in a landlord and tenant claim must use the Part 8 procedure as modified by Part 56 and this practice direction.
- 2.1A Where the landlord and tenant claim is a claim for –
- (1) a new tenancy under section 24 of the 1954 Act in circumstances where the grant of a new tenancy is opposed; or
 - (2) the termination of a tenancy under section 29(2) of the 1954 Act,
- the claimant must use the Part 7 procedure as modified by Part 56 and this practice direction.
- 2.2 Except where the county court does not have jurisdiction, landlord and tenant claims should normally be brought in the county court. Only exceptional circumstances justify starting a claim in the High Court.
- 2.3 If a claimant starts a claim in the High Court and the court decides that it should have been started in the county court, the court will normally either strike the claim out or transfer it to the county court on its own initiative. This is likely to result in delay and the court will normally disallow the costs of starting the claim in the High Court and of any transfer.
- 2.4 Circumstances which may, in an appropriate case, justify starting a claim in the High Court are if –
- (1) there are complicated disputes of fact; or
 - (2) there are points of law of general importance.
- 2.5 The value of the property and the amount of any financial claim may be relevant circumstances, but these factors alone will not normally justify starting the claim in the High Court.
- 2.6 A landlord and tenant claim started in the High Court must be brought in the Chancery Division.

 - (2) ‘an opposed claim’ means a claim for –
 - (a) a new tenancy under section 24 of the 1954 Act in circumstances where the grant of a new tenancy is opposed; or
