

Section 5

Details of order you are seeking to appeal

If you have already appealed unsuccessfully against the order in a county court or the High Court and wish to appeal that decision (make a second appeal) you should enter details of the first appeal in this section. Your appellant's notice appealing the original order should be included in your bundle of documents (see notes to section 11).

If you are appealing only part of an order or tribunal decision, you must write out that part (or parts) of the order in the box provided.

You should give the full title and name of the judge, e.g. 'His Honour Judge Jones' or 'District Judge Smith', and the date of the order or decision being appealed.

If the order being appealed was made in the High Court or a county court, and did not relate to a family matter, it may have been allocated to the fast track or multi-track for the purpose of preparation of evidence and trial. If it was allocated to a track, you should tick the appropriate box to show which. (The notice of allocation or other order should give this information.)

You should also tick the appropriate box if the order you are appealing against was a case management decision. Case management decisions include orders relating to:

- the timetable for trial;
- the filing and exchange of information (of witnesses and experts);
- disclosure of documents (papers the court said you must make available to the other parties); or
- adding a party to a claim.
