8.4 Where the defendant has failed to file an acknowledgment of service and the time period for doing so has expired, the defendant may attend the hearing of the application but may not take part in the hearing unless the court gives permission.

- 10.4 All interim directions should insofar as possible be sought at the first hearing of the disqualification application so that the disqualification application can be determined at the earliest possible date. The parties should take all such steps as they respectively can to avoid successive directions hearings.
- 10.5 In the case of a disqualification application made under sections 7, 8 or 9A of the Act, the registrar shall adjourn the case for further consideration if –

26. SERVICE

- 26.1 Service of application notices in disqualification proceedings will be the responsibility of the parties and will not be undertaken by the court.
- 26.2 Where any application notice or order of the court or other document is required in any application to be served on any person who is not in England and Wales, the court may order service on him to be effected within such time and in such manner as it thinks fit, and may also require such proof of service as it thinks fit. Section III of CPR Part 6 does not apply.

PART SIX DISQUALIFICATION PROCEEDINGS OTHER THAN IN THE ROYAL COURTS OF JUSTICE

27.1 Where a disqualification application or a section 8A application is made by a claim form issued other than in the Royal Courts of Justice this practice direction shall apply with the following modifications

- (1) Upon the issue of the claim form the court shall endorse it with the date and time for the first hearing before a district judge. The powers exercisable by a registrar under this practice direction shall be exercised by a district judge.
- (2) If the district judge (either at the first hearing or at any adjourned hearing before him) directs that the disqualification claim or section 8A application is to be heard by a High Court judge or by an authorised circuit judge he will direct that the case be entered forthwith in the list for hearing by that judge and the court will allocate (i) a date for the hearing of the trial by that judge and (ii) unless the district judge directs otherwise a date for the hearing of a P.T.R. by the trial judge.

PART SEVEN DISQUALIFICATION UNDERTAKINGS

28. COSTS

28.1 The general rule is that the court will order the defendant to pay –

- (1) the costs of the Secretary of State (and, in the case of a disqualification application made under section 7(1)(b) of the Act, the costs of the official receiver) if:
 - (a) a disqualification application under section 7 or 8 of the Act has been commenced; and
 - (b) that application is discontinued because the Secretary of State has accepted a disqualification undertaking under section 1A of the Act;
- (2) the costs of the Office of Fair Trading or a specified regulator if:
 - (a) a disqualification application under section 9A of the Act has been commenced; and
 - (b) that application is discontinued because the Office of Fair Trading or specified regulator (as the case may be) has accepted a disqualification undertaking under section 9B of the Act.

28.2 The general rule will not apply where the court considers that the circumstances are such that it should make another order.

APPLICATIONS UNDER SECTION 8A OF THE ACT TO REDUCE THE PERIOD FOR WHICH A DISQUALIFICATION UNDERTAKING IS IN FORCE OR TO PROVIDE FOR IT TO CEASE TO BE IN FORCE

29. HEADINGS

29.1 Every claim form by which a section 8A application is begun and all affidavits, notices and other documents in the proceedings must be entitled in the matter of a disqualification undertaking and its date and in the matter of the Act.

30. COMMENCEMENT: THE CLAIM FORM

30.1 Section 8A(3) of the Act identifies the courts which have jurisdiction to deal with section 8A applications.

30.1A A section 8A application must be commenced by a claim form issued:

- (1) in the case of a disqualification undertaking given under section 9B of the Act, in the High Court out of the office of the companies court registrar at the Royal Courts of Justice;
- (2) in any other case,
 - (a) in the High Court out of the office of the companies court registrar or a chancery district registry; and
 - (b) in the county court, out of a county court office.

30.2 A section 8A application shall be made by the issue of a Part 8 claim form in the form annexed hereto and the use of the procedure set out in CPR Part 8, as modified by this practice direction. CPR rule 8.1 (3) (power of the Court to order the application to continue as if the claimant had not used the Part 8 procedure) shall not apply.

30.3 When the claim form is issued, the claimant will be given a date for the first hearing of the section 8A application. This date is to be not less than eight weeks from the date of issue of the claim form. The first hearing will be before registrar.

30.4 CPR Rule 8.2 does not apply. The claim form must state:

- (1) that CPR Part 8 (as modified by this practice direction) applies;
- (2) the form of order the claimant seeks.

30.5 In the case of a disqualification undertaking given under section 9B of the Act, the defendant to the section 8A application shall be the Office of Fair Trading or specified regulator which accepted the undertaking. In all other cases, the Secretary of State shall be made the defendant to the section 8A application.

30.6 Service of claim forms in section 8A applications will be the responsibility of the claimant and will not be undertaken by the court. The claim form may be served by sending it by first class post and the date of service shall, unless the contrary is shown, be deemed to be the 7th day following that on which the claim form was posted. CPR r. 6.7(1) shall be modified accordingly. Otherwise Sections I and II of CPR Part 6 apply¹.

30.7 Where any order of the court or other document is required to be served on any person who is not in England and Wales, the court may order service on him to be effected within such time and in such manner as it thinks fit and may require such proof of service as it thinks fit. Section III of CPR Part 6 shall not apply.

30.8 The claim form served on the defendant shall be accompanied by an acknowledgement of service in the form annexed hereto.

31. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF SERVICE

31.1 The defendant shall:

- (1) file an acknowledgement of service in the relevant practice form not more than 14 days after service of the claim form; and
- (2) serve a copy of the acknowledgement of service on the claimant and any other party.

¹ Attention is drawn to CPR r 6.14(2) regarding a certificate of service of the claim form.

- 31.2 Where the defendant has failed to file an acknowledgement of service and the time period for doing so has expired, the defendant may nevertheless attend the hearing of the application and take part in the hearing as provided for by section 8A(2) or (2A) of the Act. However, this is without prejudice to the Court's case management powers and its powers to make costs orders.

32. EVIDENCE

- 32.1 Evidence in section 8A applications shall be by affidavit. The undertaking (or a copy) shall be exhibited to the affidavit.
- 32.2 When the claim form is issued:
- (1) the affidavit in support of the section 8A application must be filed in court;
 - (2) exhibits must be lodged with the court where they shall be retained until the conclusion of the proceedings; and
 - (3) copies of the affidavit and exhibits shall be served with the claim form on the defendant.
- 32.3 The defendant shall, within 28 days from the date of service of the claim form:
- (1) file in court any affidavit evidence that he wishes the court to take into consideration on the application; and
 - (2) lodge the exhibits with the court where they shall be retained until the conclusion of the proceedings; and
 - (3) at the same time, serve upon the claimant a copy of the affidavits and exhibits.
- 32.4 The claimant shall, within 14 days from receiving the copy of the defendant's evidence:
- (1) file in court any further affidavit evidence in reply he wishes the court to take into consideration; and
 - (2) lodge the exhibits with the court where they shall be retained until the conclusion of the proceedings; and
 - (3) at the same time serve a copy of the affidavits and exhibits upon the defendant.
- 32.5 Prior to the first hearing of the section 8A application, the time for serving evidence may be extended by written agreement between the parties. After the first hearing, the extension of time for serving evidence is governed by CPR rules 2.11 and 29.5.
- 32.6 So far as is possible all evidence should be filed before the first hearing of the section 8A application.

33. HEARINGS AND CASE MANAGEMENT

- 33.1 The date fixed for the first hearing of the section 8A application shall be not less than 8 weeks from the date of issue of the claim form.
- 33.2 The hearing shall in the first instance be before the registrar.
- 33.3 The registrar shall either determine the case on the date fixed or give directions and adjourn it.
- 33.4 All interim directions should insofar as possible be sought at the first hearing of the section 8A application so that the section 8A application can be determined at the earliest possible date. The parties should take all such steps as they respectively can to avoid successive directions hearings.
- 33.5 If the registrar adjourns the application for further consideration he shall:

- (1) direct whether the application is to be heard by a registrar or by a judge. This direction may at any time be varied by the court either on application or of its own initiative. If the court varies the direction in the absence of any of the parties, notice will be given to the parties;
 - (2) consider whether or not to adjourn the application to a judge so that the judge can give further directions;
 - (3) consider whether or not to make any direction with regard to fixing the trial date or a trial window.
- 33.6 On the first or any subsequent hearing of the section 8A application, the registrar may also give directions as to the following matters:
- (1) the filing in court and the service of further evidence (if any) by the parties;
 - (2) the time-table for the steps to be taken between the giving of directions and the hearing of the section 8A application;
 - (3) such other matters as the registrar thinks necessary or expedient with a view to an expeditious disposal of the section 8A application or the management of it generally;
 - (4) the time and place of the adjourned hearing.
- 33.7 Where a case is adjourned other than to a judge, it may be heard by the registrar who originally dealt with the case or by another registrar.
- 33.8 If the companies court registrar adjourns the application to a judge, all directions having been complied with and the evidence being complete, the application will be referred to the Listing Office and any practice direction relating to listing shall apply accordingly.
- 33.9 In all section 8A applications, the Court may direct a pre-trial review ('PTR'), a case management conference or pre-trial check lists (listing questionnaires) (in the form annexed to this practice direction) and will fix a trial date or trial period in accordance with the provisions of CPR Part 29: The Multi-Track, as modified by any relevant practice direction made thereunder.
- 33.10 At the hearing of the PTR, the registrar may give any further directions as appropriate and, where the application is to be heard in the Royal Courts of Justice in London, unless the trial date has already been fixed, may direct the parties (by Counsel's clerks, if applicable) to attend the Registrar at a specified time and place in order solely to fix a trial date. The court will give notice of the date fixed for the trial to the parties.
- 33.11 In all cases, the parties must inform the court immediately of any material change to the information provided in a pre-trial check list.

34. THE TRIAL

34.1 Trial bundles containing copies of –

- (1) the claim form;
- (2) the acknowledgment of service;
- (3) all evidence filed by or on behalf of each of the parties to the proceedings, together with the exhibits thereto;
- (4) all relevant correspondence; and
- (5) such other documents as the parties consider necessary, shall be lodged with the court.

- 34.2 Skeleton arguments should be prepared by all the parties in all but the simplest cases whether the case is to be heard by a registrar or a judge. They should comply with all relevant guidelines.
- 34.3 The advocate for the claimant should also in all but the simplest cases provide: (a) a chronology; (b) a dramatis personae.
- 34.4 The documents mentioned in paragraph 34.1-34.3 above must be delivered to the court in accordance with any order of the court and/or and relevant practice direction¹.
- (1) If the case is to be heard by a judge sitting in the Royal Courts of Justice, London, but the name of the judge is not known, or the judge is a deputy judge, these documents must be delivered to the Clerk of the Lists. If the name of the judge (other than a deputy judge) is known, these documents must be delivered to the judge's clerk;
 - (2) If the case is to be heard by a companies court registrar, these documents must be delivered to Room 409, Thomas More Building, Royal Courts of Justice. Copies must be provided to the other party so far as possible when they are delivered to the court;
 - (3) If the case is to be heard in the Chancery district registries in Birmingham, Bristol, Caernarfon, Cardiff, Leeds, Liverpool, Manchester, Mold, Newcastle upon Tyne or Preston, the addresses for delivery are set out in Annex 1;
 - (4) If the case is to be heard in a county court, the documents should be delivered to the relevant county court office.
- 34.5 Copies of documents delivered to the court must, so far as possible, be provided to each of the other parties to the claim.
- 34.6 The provisions in paragraphs 34.1 to 34.5 above are subject to any order of the court making different provision.

35. APPEALS

- 35.1 Rules 7.47 and 7.49 of the Insolvency Rules, as supplemented by Part Four of the Insolvency Proceedings Practice Direction, apply to an appeal from, or review of, a decision made by the court in the course of:
- (1) disqualification proceedings under any of sections 6 to 8A or 9A of the Act;
 - (2) an application made under section 17 of the Act for the purposes of any of sections 1(1)(a), 1A(1)(a) or 9B(4), for permission to act notwithstanding a disqualification order made, or a disqualification undertaking accepted, under any of sections 6 to 10.
- Any such decision, and any appeal from it, constitutes 'insolvency proceedings' for the purposes of the Insolvency Proceedings Practice Direction².
- 35.2 An appeal from a decision made by the court in the course of disqualification proceedings under any of sections 2(2)(a), 3 or 4 of the Act or on an application for permission to act notwithstanding a disqualification order made under any of those sections is governed by CPR Part 52 and Practice Direction 52.

¹ Attention is drawn to the provisions of the Chancery Guide. Chapter 7 of that Guide dated September 2000 provides guidance on the preparation of trial bundles and skeleton arguments. Unless the Court otherwise orders, paragraph 7.16 of the Chancery Guide requires that trial bundles be delivered to the Court 7 days before trial and paragraph 7.21 requires that skeleton arguments be delivered to the Court not less than 2 clear days before trial. Addresses for service on government departments are set out in the List of Authorised Government Departments issued by the Cabinet Office under section 17 of the Crown Proceedings Act 1947, which is annexed to the Practice Direction supplementing Part 66.

Notes for claimant on completing claim form N501

Directors disqualification section 8A application

Please read all of these guidance notes before you begin completing the claim form. The notes follow the order in which information is required on the form.

- Court staff can help you fill in the claim form and give information about procedure once it has been issued. But they cannot give legal advice. If you need legal advice for example, about the likely success of your claim or the evidence you need to prove it, you should contact a solicitor or a Citizens Advice Bureau.
- If you are filling in the claim form by hand, please use black ink and write in block capitals.
- You must file evidence to support your claim with the claim form in the form of an affidavit or affirmation.
- Copy the completed claim form, the defendant's notes for guidance and your written evidence so that you have one copy for yourself, one copy for the court and one copy for each defendant. Send or take the forms and evidence to the court office with the appropriate fee. The court will tell you how much this is.
