

ARBITRATION

This Practice Direction supplements Part 62

SECTION I

- 1.1 This Section of this Practice Direction applies to arbitration claims to which Section I of Part 62 applies.
- 1.2 In this Section ‘the 1996 Act’ means the Arbitration Act 1996.
- 1.3 Where a rule provides for a document to be sent, it may be sent –
- (1) by first class post;
 - (2) through a document exchange; or
 - (3) by fax, electronic mail or other means of electronic communication.

62.3 – Starting the claim

- 2.1 An arbitration claim under the 1996 Act (other than under section 9) must be started in accordance with the High Court and County Courts (Allocation of Arbitration Proceedings) Order 1996 by the issue of an arbitration claim form.
- 2.2 An arbitration claim form must be substantially in the form set out in Appendix A to this practice direction.
- 2.3 Subject to paragraph 2.1, an arbitration claim form –
- (1) may be issued at the courts set out in column 1 of the table below and will be entered in the list set out against that court in column 2;
 - (2) relating to a landlord and tenant or partnership dispute must be issued in the Chancery Division of the High Court.

Court	List
Admiralty and Commercial Registry at the Royal Courts of Justice, London	Commercial list
Technology and Construction Court Registry, St. Dunstan’s House, London	TCC list
District Registry of the High Court (where mercantile court established)	Mercantile list
District Registry of the High Court (where arbitration claim form marked ‘Technology and Construction Court’ in top right hand corner)	TCC list

- 2.3A An arbitration claim form must, in the case of an appeal, or application for permission to appeal, from a judge-arbitrator, be issued in the Civil Division of the Court of Appeal. The judge hearing the application may adjourn the matter for oral argument before two judges of that court.

62.4 – Arbitration claim form

Service

- 3.1 The court may exercise its powers under rule 6.15 to permit service of an arbitration claim form at the address of a party's solicitor or representative acting for that party in the arbitration.
- 3.2 Where the arbitration claim form is served by the claimant he must file a certificate of service within 7 days of service of the arbitration claim form.
- (Rule 6.17 specifies what a certificate of service must show).

Acknowledgment of service or making representations by arbitrator or ACAS

- 4.1 Where –
- (1) an arbitrator; or
 - (2) ACAS (in a claim under the 1996 Act as applied with modifications by the ACAS Arbitration Scheme (England and Wales) Order 2001) is sent a copy of an arbitration claim form (including an arbitration claim form sent under rule 62.6(2)), that arbitrator or ACAS (as the case may be) may –
 - (a) apply to be made a defendant; or
 - (b) make representations to the court under paragraph 4.3.
- 4.2 An application under paragraph 4.1(2)(a) to be made a defendant –
- (1) must be served on the claimant; but
 - (2) need not be served on any other party.
- 4.3 An arbitrator or ACAS may make representations by filing written evidence or in writing to the court.

Supply of documents from court records

- 5.1 An arbitration claim form may only be inspected with the permission of the court.

62.7 – Case management

- 6.1 The following directions apply unless the court orders otherwise.
- 6.2 A defendant who wishes to rely on evidence before the court must file and serve his written evidence –
- (1) within 21 days after the date by which he was required to acknowledge service; or,
 - (2) where a defendant is not required to file an acknowledgement of service, within 21 days after service of the arbitration claim form.
- 6.3 A claimant who wishes to rely on evidence in reply to written evidence filed under paragraph 6.2 must file and serve his written evidence within 7 days after service of the defendant's evidence.
- 6.4 Agreed indexed and paginated bundles of all the evidence and other documents to be used at the hearing must be prepared by the claimant.
- 6.5 Not later than 5 days before the hearing date estimates for the length of the hearing must be filed together with a complete set of the documents to be used.

- 6.6 Not later than 2 days before the hearing date the claimant must file and serve –
- (1) a chronology of the relevant events cross-referenced to the bundle of documents;
 - (2) (where necessary) a list of the persons involved; and
 - (3) a skeleton argument which lists succinctly –
 - (a) the issues which arise for decision;
 - (b) the grounds of relief (or opposing relief) to be relied upon;
 - (c) the submissions of fact to be made with the references to the evidence; and
 - (d) the submissions of law with references to the relevant authorities.

- 6.7 Not later than the day before the hearing date the defendant must file and serve a skeleton argument which lists succinctly –
- (1) the issues which arise for decision;
 - (2) the grounds of relief (or opposing relief) to be relied upon;
 - (3) the submissions of fact to be made with the references to the evidence; and
 - (4) the submissions of law with references to the relevant authorities.

Securing the attendance of witnesses

- 7.1 A party to arbitral proceedings being conducted in England or Wales who wishes to rely on section 43 of the 1996 Act to secure the attendance of a witness must apply for a witness summons in accordance with Part 34.
- 7.2 If the attendance of the witness is required within the district of a district registry, the application may be made at that registry.
- 7.3 A witness summons will not be issued until the applicant files written evidence showing that the application is made with –
- (1) the permission of the tribunal; or
 - (2) the agreement of the other parties.

Interim remedies

- 8.1 An application for an interim remedy under section 44 of the 1996 Act must be made in an arbitration claim form.

Applications under sections 32 and 45 of the 1996 Act

- 9.1 This paragraph applies to arbitration claims for the determination of –
- (1) a question as to the substantive jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal under section 32 of the 1996 Act; and
 - (2) a preliminary point of law under section 45 of the 1996 Act.
- 9.2 Where an arbitration claim is made without the agreement in writing of all the other parties to the arbitral proceedings but with the permission of the arbitral tribunal, the written evidence or witness statements filed by the parties must set out any evidence relied on by the parties in support of their contention that the court should, or should not, consider the claim.
- 9.3 As soon as practicable after the written evidence is filed, the court will decide whether or not it should consider the claim and, unless the court otherwise directs, will so decide without a hearing.

Decisions without a hearing

- 10.1 Having regard to the overriding objective the court may decide particular issues without a hearing. For example, as set out in paragraph 9.3, the question whether the court is satisfied as to the matters set out in section 32(2)(b) or section 45(2)(b) of the 1996 Act.
- 10.2 The court will generally decide whether to extend the time limit under section 70(3) of the 1996 Act without a hearing. Where the court makes an order extending the time limit, the defendant must file his written evidence within 21 days from service of the order.

62.9 – Variation of time

- 11.1 An application for an order under rule 62.9(1) –
- (1) before the period of 28 days has expired, must be made in a Part 23 application notice; and
 - (2) after the period of 28 days has expired, must be set out in a separately identified part in the arbitration claim form.

Applications for permission to appeal

- 12.1 Where a party seeks permission to appeal to the court on a question of law arising out of an arbitration award, the arbitration claim form must, in addition to complying with rule 62.4(1) –
- (1) identify the question of law;
 - (2) state the grounds (but not the argument) on which the party challenges the award and contends that permission should be given;
 - (3) be accompanied by a skeleton argument in support of the application in accordance with paragraph 12.2; and
 - (4) append the award.
- 12.2 Subject to paragraph 12.3, the skeleton argument –
- (1) must be printed in 12 point font, with 1½ line spacing;
 - (2) should not exceed 15 pages in length; and
 - (3) must contain an estimate of how long the court is likely to need to deal with the application on the papers.
- 12.3 If the skeleton argument exceeds 15 pages in length the author must write to the court explaining why that is necessary.
- 12.4 Written evidence may be filed in support of the application only if it is necessary to show (insofar as that is not apparent from the award itself) –
- (1) that the determination of the question raised by the appeal will substantially affect the rights of one or more of the parties;
 - (2) that the question is one which the tribunal was asked to determine;
 - (3) that the question is one of general public importance;
 - (4) that it is just and proper in all the circumstances for the court to determine the question raised by the appeal.
- Any such evidence must be filed and served with the arbitration claim form.
- 12.5 Unless there is a dispute whether the question raised by the appeal is one which the tribunal was asked to determine, no arbitration documents may be put before the court other than –
- (1) the award; and

- (2) any document (such as the contract or the relevant parts thereof) which is referred to in the award and which the court needs to read to determine a question of law arising out of the award.

In this Practice Direction 'arbitration documents' means documents adduced in or produced for the purposes of the arbitration.

- 12.6 A respondent who wishes to oppose an application for permission to appeal must file a respondent's notice which –
- (1) sets out the grounds (but not the argument) on which the respondent opposes the application; and
 - (2) states whether the respondent wishes to contend that the award should be upheld for reasons not expressed (or not fully expressed) in the award and, if so, states those reasons (but not the argument).
- 12.7 The respondent's notice must be filed and served within 21 days after the date on which the respondent was required to acknowledge service and must be accompanied by a skeleton argument in support which complies with paragraph 12.2 above.
- 12.8 Written evidence in opposition to the application should be filed only if it complies with the requirements of paragraph 12.4 above. Any such evidence must be filed and served with the respondent's notice.
- 12.9 The applicant may file and serve evidence or argument in reply only if it is necessary to do so. Any such evidence or argument must be as brief as possible and must be filed and served within 7 days after service of the respondent's notice.
- 12.10 If either party wishes to invite the court to consider arbitration documents other than those specified in paragraph 12.5 above the counsel or solicitor responsible for settling the application documents must write to the court explaining why that is necessary.
- 12.11 If a party or its representative fails to comply with the requirements of paragraphs 12.1 to 12.9 the court may penalise that party or representative in costs.
- 12.12 The court will normally determine applications for permission to appeal without an oral hearing but may direct otherwise, particularly with a view to saving time (including court time) or costs.
- 12.13 Where the court considers that an oral hearing is required, it may give such further directions as are necessary.
- 12.14 Where the court refuses an application for permission to appeal without an oral hearing, it will provide brief reasons.
- 12.15 The bundle for the hearing of any appeal should contain only the claim form, the respondent's notice, the arbitration documents referred to in paragraph 12.5, the order granting permission to appeal and the skeleton arguments.

SECTION II

- 13.1 This Section of this Practice Direction applies to arbitration claims to which Section II of Part 62 applies.

62.13 – Starting the claim

- 14.1 An arbitration claim must be started in the Commercial Court and, where required to be heard by a judge, be heard by a judge of that court unless he otherwise directs.

SECTION III

- 15.1 This Section of this Practice Direction applies to enforcement proceedings to which Section III of Part 62 applies.

62.21 – Registration of awards under the Arbitration (International Investment Disputes) Act 1966

- 16.1 Awards ordered to be registered under the 1966 Act and particulars will be entered in the Register kept for that purpose at the Admiralty and Commercial Registry.

Arbitration Claim - notes for the claimant

Please read these guidance notes before you begin completing the claim form

The arbitration claim form may be used to start proceedings and make an application in existing proceedings. Where an application is being made in existing proceedings, an acknowledgment of service form is not required and the references to an acknowledgment of service form in the Notes for the Defendant should be deleted.

With the exception of:

- applications under section 9 of the Arbitration Act 1996; and
- certain proceedings which may be started only in the High Court or only in a county court - see High Court and County Courts (Allocation of Arbitration Proceedings) Order 1996, arbitration proceedings may be started in the courts set out in the table opposite.

District Registry of the High Court (where Mercantile court established)	Mercantile
District Registry of the High Court (where the Claim form marked 'Technology and Construction Court' in top right hand corner)	TCC
Central London County Court	Mercantile

Heading

You must fill in the heading of the claim form with:

- the name of the court (High Court or county court); and
- if issued in a District Registry, the name of the District Registry

Claimant and defendant details

You must provide your full name and address, including postcode and the full names and addresses of the defendants to be served. If a defendant is to be served outside England and Wales, the court's permission may need to be sought (see Rule 62.5).

Remedy claimed and grounds on which claim is made

You must:

- include a concise statement of
 - the remedy claimed; and
 - any questions on which you seek the decision of the court;
- give details of any arbitration award which you challenge, identifying which part or parts of the award are challenged and the grounds for the challenge;
- show that any statutory requirements have been met;

- specify under which section of the Act the claim is made;

Respondents

- if on notice, give the names and addresses of the persons on whom the arbitration claim form is to be served, stating their role in the arbitration and whether they are defendants; or
- state that the claim is made without notice under section 44(3) of the 1966 Act, and the grounds relied on.

Acknowledgment of service form

An acknowledgment of service form N15 must accompany the arbitration claim form. You should complete the heading on this form. Where the claim form is to be served out of the jurisdiction, you must amend the Notes for the Defendant to give the time within which the defendant must acknowledge service and file evidence. The claim form is valid for one month beginning with the date of its issue or, where required to be served out of the jurisdiction, for such period as the court may fix.

Address for documents

You must provide an address for service within England and Wales to which documents should be sent. That address must be either the business address of your solicitor, or your residential or business address.

Statement of Truth

The statement of truth must be signed by you or by your solicitor. Where the statement of truth is not signed by the solicitor and the claimant is a registered company or corporation, the statement of truth must be signed by either a director, the treasurer, secretary, chief executive, manager or other officer of the company and (in the case of a corporation) the mayor, chairman, president or town clerk.

You may rely on the matters set out in the claim form as evidence only if the claim form is verified by a statement of truth. You may also file an affidavit or witness statement in support of the arbitration claim, which must be served with the claim form.

Arbitration Claim - notes for the defendant

Please read these guidance notes carefully before you respond to the arbitration claim form

Court staff can help you with procedures but they cannot give legal advice. If you need legal advice, you should contact a solicitor or a Citizens Advice Bureau immediately.

Responding to the claim

If you are:

- named as a defendant in the claim form; and
- served with a copy of it,

you should respond by completing and returning to the court office the acknowledgment of service form which was enclosed with the claim form, within *(14 days) () of the date it was served on you. At the same time you must serve a copy on the claimant and any other party shown on the claim form.

If the claim form was:

- sent by post, the *(14 days) () starts 2 days from the date of the postmark on the envelope;
- delivered or left at your address, the *(14 days) () starts on the day it was given to you;
- handed to you personally, the *(14 days) () starts on the day it was given to you.

The acknowledgment of service

If you:

- fail to complete and file the acknowledgment of service within the time specified; or
- if you indicate that you do not intend to contest the claim,

If you later change your mind, you will not be entitled to contest the claim without the court's permission.

Evidence

If you wish to rely on evidence before the court, you must file and serve your written evidence within *(21 days) () of the date the claim form was served on you.

Statement of truth

The acknowledgment of service must be signed by you or by your solicitor. Where the acknowledgment of service is not signed by your solicitor and you are a registered company or corporation, it must be signed by either a director, the treasurer, secretary, chief executive, manager or other officer of the company and (in the case of a corporation) the mayor, Chairman, president or town clerk.

Notes for arbitrators

If you are:

- an arbitrator; or
- ACAS (in a claim under the 1996 Act as applied with modification by the ACAS (England and Wales) Order 2001), who has been named as a defendant in the claim form, the above notes apply to you as they do to any other defendant.

If you were, or are:

- an arbitrator in the arbitration which led to this claim; and
- if you are not named as a defendant;

this claim form is sent to you for information

You may either:

- make a request (with notice only to the claimant) to be made a defendant
- may make representations to the court (see paragraph 4.3 of practice direction to Part 62)

Claimant should alter where appropriate if the claim form is to be served out of the jurisdiction (see CPR Part6)*
