

Application under Part 19 of the Family Procedure Rules 2010

Notes for applicant on completing the application (Form FP1)

- Please read all of these guidance notes before you begin completing the application. The notes follow the order in which information is required on the application.
- Court staff can help you fill in the application and give information about procedure once it has been issued, but they cannot give legal advice. If you need legal advice, for example, about the likely success of your application or the evidence you need to support it, you should contact a solicitor or a Citizens Advice Bureau.
- If you are filling in the application by hand, please use black ink and write in block capitals.
- You must file any written evidence to support your application either in or with the application. Your written evidence must be verified by a statement of truth.
- Copy the completed application, the respondent's notes for guidance and your written evidence so that you have a copy for yourself, one copy for the court and one copy for each respondent. Send or take the applications and evidence to the court office with the appropriate fee. The court will tell you how much this is.

Notes on completing the application

Applicant and Respondent details

As the person making the application, you are called the 'applicant'; any other party is called a 'respondent'. Applicants who are under 18 years old (unless otherwise permitted by the court) and persons who lack capacity within the meaning of the Mental Capacity Act 2005 must have a litigation friend to make the application and conduct court proceedings on their behalf. Court staff will tell you more about what you need to do if this applies to you.

You must provide the following information about yourself and each respondent (if known):

- all known forenames and surname;
- whether Mr, Mrs, Miss, Ms or Other (e.g. Dr); and
- residential address (including postcode and telephone number).

Where the person is:

- under 18, write ("a child, by 'Mr Joe Bloggs' his/her litigation friend")
- a person who lacks capacity within the meaning of the Mental Capacity Act 2005, write ("", by Mr Joe Bloggs, his/her litigation friend")
- appearing in a representative capacity, you must say what that capacity is, eg. "Mr Joe Bloggs as the representative of Mrs Sharon Bloggs"

Your solicitor's name and address

If you are acting by solicitor in these proceedings, enter in this box your solicitor's full name and address, and other contact details as requested.

Details of application

Under this heading you must set out either:

- the question(s) you wish the court to decide; or
- the order you are seeking and the legal basis for your application; and
- if your application is being made under a specific rule or practice direction, you must state which.

Statement of truth

This must be signed by you, by your solicitor or your litigation friend, as appropriate.
