Guidance Notes: Application for information from court records

You should attach a full certified copy of the entry in the Register of Adopted Children which relates to you.

When you have completed the form you should take it in person to the court which made the adoption order along with evidence of your identity showing a photograph and signature, such as a passport or driving licence.

The court will check the evidence of your identity, make a note of it on the application form and return it to you.

What happens next

The court will locate the court records relevant to your application and send copies of the documents you have requested to your home address. The court may edit the documents before they are sent to you.
