

the court or our website. You may have to pay additional fees if it is filed at a later date than your appellant's notice.

Section 9: Evidence in support

Include here any information you have to support your application under Section 8.

State whether you are producing new evidence in your appeal or asking for permission to produce oral evidence at the appeal hearing. You will need to give reasons why the new evidence was not before the original court and, where oral evidence is requested, the reasons why you think it is necessary. You should sign the statement of truth at the bottom of this section to support any evidence you provide.

Section 10: Supporting documents

Do not delay filing your appellant's notice at the appeal court. If you have not been able to obtain any of the documents listed below within the time allowed, complete the notice as best you can and ensure the notice is filed on time. Tick the appropriate boxes to show the documents you are filing with the appeal notice. List any documents that you intend to use but which you do not have available in the box over the page. Set out the reasons why you have been unable to obtain any of the information or documents and give the date when you expect them to be available.

Whenever possible, the following documents should be filed with your appellant's notice:-

- two additional copies of your appellant's notice for the appeal court;
- one copy of your appellant's notice for each of the respondents;
