

In relation to a civil partnership:

Either the civil partnership is void because:

- ☐ At the time when they entered the civil partnership the parties were not eligible to register as civil partners of each other under Chapter one (Section 3) of the Civil Partnership Act 2004
- ☐ At the time of the civil partnership the parties both knew that:
 - ☐ due notice of proposed civil partnership had not been given
 - ☐ the civil partnership certificate had not been duly issued
 - ☐ the civil partnership document was void under section 17(3) or 27(2) (registration after end of time allowed for registering)
 - ☐ the place of registration was a place other than specified in the notices (or notice) of proposed civil partnership and the civil partnership document
 - ☐ a civil partnership registrar was not present
 - ☐ that the place of registration was on premises that are not approved premises although the registration was purportedly in accordance with section 6(3A)
- ☐ The civil partnership document is void under paragraph 6(5) of Schedule 2 (civil partnership between a child and another person forbidden) or, the civil partnership is voidable because:

- ☐ The Petitioner or Respondent did not validly consent to the formation of the civil partnership (whether as a result of duress, mistake, unsoundness of mind or otherwise)
- ☐ At the time of the formation of the civil partnership either party, though capable of giving a valid consent, was suffering (whether continuously or intermittently) from mental disorder of such a kind or to such an extent as to be unfitted for civil partnership
- ☐ At the time of the formation of the civil partnership the Respondent was pregnant by some person other than the Petitioner
- ☐ An interim gender recognition certificate under the Gender Recognition Act 2004 has, after the time of the formation of the civil partnership, been issued to either civil partner
- ☐ The Respondent is a person whose gender at the time of the civil partnership had become the acquired gender under the Gender Recognition Act 2004 at the time of the formation of the civil partnership.

Part 6 Statement of case

See the supporting notes for guidance

(in all cases, please state briefly any relevant details about the fact(s) on which you rely)